

Writing Workshop Offered at Convention

As I attend meetings and discuss literature, The Forum, and daily readers, I am amazed at the knowledge and wisdom that comes to me from those stories of experience, strength, and hope. Now what really amazes me are these stories don't come from the guru at the top of the mountain in some far away place that I've never heard of or will never see for myself. These stories come from the Al-anon family that I belong to. How did they get there you might ask? By submitting their stories to the World Service Office, of course. But first they must be written.

Sharing for The Forum and other Conference Approved Literature (CAL)

The Convention Committee is offering something new in 2023! A quiet space, The Writer's Room, that is open continuously Saturday noon through Sunday morning for all members to come and put "pen to paper" about their experience, strength, and hope in Al-Anon. Help carry the message of Al-Anon and Alateen through your voice. The details will be presented in the Main Ballroom on Saturday from 09:00 am-09:30 am.
